School of Public Health

SPH Alumni Society: The School of Public Health Alumni Society Scholarship Fund is established to provide scholarships in the area of Public Health. This scholarship is designed to encourage recipients to continue and complete a degree a Public Health profession as well as to carry on the objectives of the School of Public Health Alumni Society.

SPH Endowed Scholarship: This scholarship supports students with a record of academic excellence and a commitment to a professional role in public health.

Physician Assistant Studies

PA Endowed Scholarship: The Physician Assistant Studies program provides an exemplary graduate-level education with a focus on primary care and meeting the health care needs of underserved populations. This program began in 1997 and is ranked as one of the top 35 graduate-level physician assistant programs in the nation by U.S. News and World Report. The scholarship will support deserving 1st year and/or 3rd year Physician Assistant students.

PA Alumni & Friends Scholarship: This scholarship was established to support PA students.

Employee & Leadership Scholarships

UNTHSC Staff Scholarship: This scholarship will provide continuing education assistance for employees at the UNT Health Science Center.

The Moorman Family Scholarship: This scholarship is for students who have a 3.0/80/B or above GPA, community service hours, and has held a campus leadership position in student government (MSGA, PASA, GSA, PHSA, etc.) Thomas Moorman, EdD, his wife, Melissa Moorman, and their two children, Emma Elizabeth Moorman and Bennett Thomas Moorman established this scholarship fund because they believe in the value of education and the importance of giving back to the communities they serve. Dr. Moorman is a firm believer in the importance of integrity and character. He believes that we all have a duty to develop the leaders of tomorrow. Students who engage in leadership while in school are more likely to take on leadership opportunities in the communities they will serve. Dr. Moorman and his family have always been compelled to share their blessings with others. "We mentor by our actions and not just by our words." Thomas Moorman, EdD.

School of Health Professions

School of Health Professions Physical Therapy Department Scholarship